DAISY AWARD

Jessica Wheeler honored with Bothwell's first-ever DAISY Award

Jessica Wheeler knew at a young age she wanted to make a difference in others' lives. "I was always filled with joy when I could help someone," the Green Ridge native said. That desire never waned, and two years ago it evolved into Wheeler's becoming a registered nurse at Bothwell.

This month the hospital honored Wheeler with its first DAISY Award.

A registered nurse in the hospital's Critical Care Unit, Wheeler was nominated for the award by the family of a patient who was admitted to Bothwell on Feb. 1 and died 12 days later. In the nomination, the patient's family said Wheeler "went above and beyond" in providing care to their father.

"She came in on her off time to check on our father and family and was very informative the whole time," the nomination said. "Jessica gave regular updates, clearly explaining things to the family in a way that everyone understood. She was always honest, kind and thoughtful with the whole family."

BRHC Chief Nursing Officer Rose McMullin read from the nomination at the DAISY Award presentation during a National Nurses Week Celebration at the hospital.

Jessica Wheeler, an RN in Bothwell's Critical Care Unit, was selected as the hospital's first-ever DAISY Award winner for her skill and compassionate care.

"(Jessica) is a wonderful, compassionate and empathetic nurse," McMullin said. "She truly cares for her patients."

Wheeler said she was "shocked" when she was selected for the award. "I felt touched that I was able to make such an impression on a patient's family in such a positive way during such a difficult situation," she said.

The hospital presented Wheeler with a certificate commending her for being an "Extraordinary Nurse." She also received a DAISY Award pin and a sculpture called "A Healer's Touch," hand-carved by artists of the Shona Tribe in Africa. Also, a banner with her photograph will hang in the Critical Care Unit, and Wheeler's name will appear on the DAISY Foundation website.

'HEROES DON'T ALWAYS WEAR CAPES' WINS CONTEST

Jackie Webb created the winning design for BRHC's "Hospital Week T-Shirt Contest." Her design, "HEROES Don't Always Wear Capes" was selected the winner from among the 15 entries that were submitted.

This is the third consecutive year the hospital has had a contest to decide the graphic design for T-shirts given to every employee. Employees wore the shirts to work on May 9 during National Hospital Week. This year's theme was "Everyday Heroes." Webb, a patient financial services clerk in the Admitting Department, received a framed copy of her design and a $50 gift certificate from CEO Jimmy Robertson.

SENIOR LEADERSHIP

Keith Morrow hired as V.P. of Clinic Operations

Keith Morrow recently joined Bothwell Regional Health Center as the new vice president of clinic operations. He brings more than 15 years of experience through various health care leadership roles.

Most recently, Morrow was the Physician Practice administrator at KDMC Physician Clinics in Brookhaven, Mississippi, where he oversaw operations in the areas of primary care, internal medicine, a walk-in clinic, neurology, pediatrics, spine, orthopedics and sports medicine.

He also has held key leadership roles at health care facilities in Southaven, Mississippi, Memphis, Tennessee, and in Wisconsin and South Dakota.

Keith Morrow

Morrow is a native of Euless, Texas, and received a bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Harding University in Searcy, Arkansas. He went on to get a master's degree in exercise science from Arkansas State University in Jonesboro, Arkansas, and a master's degree in healthcare administration from Colorado State University-Global in Denver, Colorado.

Morrow said he looks forward to helping Bothwell strengthen its management structure and processes to ensure patients receive seamless care. "The goal is to continue to bring high-quality care to our patients," he said. "How do we become more prevention-minded with our patients? How do we ensure we're getting them preventative care to prevent that emergency room visit or inpatient stay?"

Pain Clinic on the move

To better serve our Bothwell Pain Clinic patients, the Pain Clinic is moving from the 2nd floor of the hospital to a more convenient location.

On June 4, the clinic will begin operating out of a new location at 1430 Thompson Blvd., Suite 7, the site of the former Sedalia Imaging Center. This new location provides easy parking and ground-level access for patients.

Patients will continue to receive comprehensive treatment options for pain management from Dr. Peri Ananth, Nurse Practitioner Elizabeth Elwell, nurses and the entire Bothwell Pain Clinic staff.

Change in pharmacy benefits provider

LDI, the name of the company that's on your pharmacy benefits card, is now CastiaRx.

Diplomat Pharmacy Inc. recently acquired LDI Integrated Pharmacy Services, and at the end of April unveiled CastiaRx to respond to industry demand for a leader in specialty benefit management. With this change, the company is providing 24/7 call center availability and an expanded level of service, ensuring that a representative is available to assist around the clock with any questions about pharmacy benefits.

Bothwell employee pharmacy benefits are not changing, and current pharmacy ID cards will continue to work at the pharmacy. Processes involving pharmacy benefits won't change at this time, and employees will receive the same service and attention they do now.

Alex Esquivel

Annalise Mergen graduated from Sacred Heart in May and will begin taking classes in August at Rockhurst University in Kansas City. This past year, she was able to job shadow in four different areas at Bothwell Regional Health Center. During this time she worked with an occupational therapist that helped guide her education path.

Annalise Mergen

Blake Pomajzl graduated from Smith Cotton High School in May and will be attending Northwestern College in Orange City, Iowa, beginning in August. Blake plans to pursue an athletic training career, where he will be able to help athletes prevent injuries and regain strength after an

SIGN UP FOR VOLUNTEER DAY AT THE FAIR!

Want free entry and a parking pass to the Missouri State Fair on Saturday, Aug. 11, or Sunday, Aug. 12? Last year, Bothwell started a new tradition: Bothwell Volunteer Day at the State Fair.

With your help, we were able to staff all seven water pavilions at the Fair for one day. This year, we want to try to cover them for two days. The plan is to fill Saturday's shifts first and then start trying to fill all the Sunday slots. Two people are needed for each four-hour shift between 9 a.m. and 9 p.m.

This is a great opportunity for community outreach, and you'll get a free T-shirt. So wear your Bothwell shirt and a smile and come have some fun at the State Fair.

To sign up to volunteer or to learn more, contact Melissa Boeschen at ext. 9138 or at mboeschen@brhc.org. The deadline to sign up is July 15.

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR WINNERS CLARIFIED

In the April Billboard, the winners of the Ida Hoffman Red Cross Volunteer of the Year Award and the Marian Tempel Auxiliary Volunteer of the Year Award were switched.

The winner of the Ida Hoffman Award was Steve Barnes. The other nominees were Marian Tilman and Frieda Ingram. The winner of the Marian Tempel Award was Karen Kay Taylor, and the other nominees were Donna Peakes and Anna Craig.

Billboard apologizes for the error.
